PRESS RELEASE

Statement by Mr. Phintso Thonden, the Representative of His Holiness the Dalai Lama in New Delhi.

His Holiness the Dalai Lama will leave New Delhi at the end of this month for a 5-6 week private visit to some European countries.

The countries His Holiness and his entourage are scheduled to visit are Austria, Denmark, West Germany, Ireland, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.

The nature of this visit is cultural and religious with strong emphasis on the exchange of views between the Eastern and Western thoughts and philosophies and in reassessing their relevance in the context of present world society. In this connection His Holiness will meet His Holiness Pope Paul VI, the Archbishop of Canterbury and other religious leaders and scholars. He will also visit some renowned European universities, libraries and religious centres which have repeatedly issued Him invitations in the past.

While in Europe His Holiness the Dalai Lama will meet a number of heads of organisations and associations who have assisted the Tibetan refugees, to express to them His appreciation of the help they have given in enabling the Tibetans to maintain their cultural and religious traditions.

This visit will also fulfill the long cherished desire of about a thousand Tibetans in Europe to receive personal blessings from His Holiness.
